

Transportation Policy

Dear Parents,

BridgePrep Academy of Riverview does not offer transportation services at our school.

Parents are responsible for their child's transportation both to and from campus. We ask that if you use a daycare or any other transportation service, that you notify your child's teacher and the front office so that we are aware of which company is servicing your children.

Thanks,

Admin